I don't have the part list from the Beta TR 32. The engines are partly interchangeable, the the TR 34 is much different to the Beta TR 33 there are more parts interchangeable.

The Beta TR 34 is ~~TR32~~ very nice, lots of grunt but still torquie, I sadly

have no experience
with the TR 32. #7.

Sadly Beta have not many parts of the air cooled mono
series TR32 - TR
34 left. There are

~~Tr 32~~ some parts between the TR 32 to TR 33 that are interchangeable. So at first I would in your situation call up a BETA Dealer about the parts you need, still some are available.

TR 32 seem fairly numerous across the pond. Anybody know how rare or have an idea of import numbers for the States? The 35 is in nice shape, original with lights and rear rack. The 32 not so much, both run well.
