This humour is a little more subdued... but a great example of the ability to use humour in B2B to a traditionally serious market – with a traditionally facts based, rational marketing approach. Thanks to Ann Handley's blog for pointing this one out in Humor and B2B Marketing: A Love Story.

Humor and B2B Marketing: A Love Story - Ann Handley

Marketing is "the story of how you create difference for your customers." And marketing done right, Jiwa contends, is a love story. As such, "instead of trying to describe what it is you're selling, set out to change how people feel the moment they read your copy or visit your website." Here are 10 takeaways from Bernadette Jiwa:

Marketing: A Love Story by Bernadette Jiwa

We tend to have no shortage of ideas, but we struggle to tell the story of how they are going to be useful in the world and why they will matter to people. Marketing is the way we communicate how our ideas translate to value for people in a marketplace.

Email Signatures + Marketing: A Love Story Written by Dan Hanrahan Category: Marketing. In the spirit of Valentine's Day, let's explore a marketer's relationship with the corporate email signature. Like a grade school girl being chased and teased by the boys at recess, the marketer first views the signature as simply annoying.

Email Signatures + Marketing: A Love Story - Terminus Site

Marketing is not a department - it's the story of how you create difference for your customers. We spent $500 billion globally on advertising in 2013. Every year we're spending more money, to interrupt more people, more often, with messages they don't care about and don't pay attention to.
